Reflections for This Week
Woman, you have great faith
Much of the letter to the Romans is explained in this Sunday's Liturgy of the Word: the whole theme is summed up in this: the Messiah came first of all to the people of Israel, to whom the promises were made in the past - but it could not remain there. The good news had to be taken to the ends of the earth, so that all peoples, indeed the whole of creation could welcome the Messiah and take a place in the Kingdom of God. All nations are welcome on God's holy mountain: "Let all the peoples praise you, O God!"
Marriage Matters: Trust in each other: When we married, we promised 'to love one another until death do us part'. In this promise we are called to put all our trust in each other, to persevere, no matter what life brings. This theme of trust is evident in the way the Canaanite woman believed that, if she persevered, Jesus would cure her daughter. He did!
Think Vocation: We pray that more men and women will have the faith to hear God's call in their lives and respond with hope in His promise and love for the Saviour by following His example.

SCIE Review of CSSA Policies and Procedures Stakeholder Survey
The CSSA (Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency) has commissioned the SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence) to undertake a review of its policies and procedures. The review aims to help shape the future of safeguarding within the Catholic Church and make representations where it is evident or perceived that the current policies and procedures are outdated, or there is a gap or no policy for a situation.
To help the review team take into consideration as many views as possible, the CSSA is requesting that people right across the Catholic Church in England and Wales - including clergy, staff, volunteers, parishioners, survivors, and more - complete the following survey: https://forms.office.com/e/PavSuixHim
