Reflections for This Week
Peter is given authority: not because he is powerful or wise in the world's sense, but because he was able to profess his faith in the one sent by the Father. This is the principle of all authority in the Church: it is to spring only from God and our faith in God, professed by our way of life and rooted only in Christ, for 'to him all authority, in heaven and on earth, has been given.' Marriage Matters: The key to family life: Today's Gospel places keys at the heart of the responsibility Jesus gives Peter. In spite of his weaknesses and failings, because of his faith, he is entrusted with the 'keys' to the kingdom of God. Our married love is entrusted with the 'keys' of our family life. We are the 'rock' upon which the future of our family will be built. Think Vocation: Trusting in Christ's words to Peter, will help those called to follow the Lord to recognise the gift that they have been given to follow Him faithfully.

Thank You
As my time in the parish comes to an end I just wanted to thank you all for welcoming me and letting me serve you. It's been a tremendous privilege to be able to share your lives as one of your priests and a great blessing that this parish was my first. It will always be a special place for me. Please keep me in your prayers as I will keep you in mine. God bless you and I hope we will see one another again. Fr Mark
